RTC CONTROL SYSTEMS (PTY) LTD

September 2020

Tough times do not last, tough people do!

During the uncertain times, the global pandemic, lockdowns, and load shedding. Many people and business have had to change their approach on managing their lives and businesses. We here at RTC Control Systems (PTY)LTD took on a project to assist Master Plastics with the installation of standby generators at their Cape Town and Durban branches.

The scope entailed of the installation of generators with new changeover panels, that would synchronise with mains. This synchronization feature enables means that the customer will experience a slight loss of electricity once the main power supply goes off and the standby generator kicks in, however, once the mains is restored, there is no loss of power to the electricity switching back from generator to mains. The installation of a Dual Full online UPS unit and reticulation around the plant allows the PLC power supplies to be connected to this supply to protect them against voltage instability. both on standby and mains supply.

The team established site on the 02nd June 2021 at their first site in Belville (Cape Town) and had their final generator commissioned in Durban on the 20th July 2021.
